1. This is the way it goes, searching the highest lows

Brings more than funny shows, no one remembers those

Kickin' back more than once

There are not only bad, bad news

Give it up and try to choose

2. When do we talk about how to invent, no doubt
 We do conclude as crowd, love to speak ill too loud
 Kickin' back more than once
 There will come better days and better ways
 Give it up and stop the chase

3. Fast to communicate, raisin' up transfer rate
 Leads that loves comes too late and that lies populate
 Kickin' back more than once
 Fast you will pay the fee, it's not for free
 Give it up and you will see

4. Pile up securities, hope there is no disease
 And stock markets lungs will breath, avarice underneath
 Kickin' back more than once
 Give as much you can give and do not sniff
 Give it up and try to live

The whole thing will turn into trash

Brings more cash ... leaves a mess

Startin' from a place I like
To a place I love, that I'm longing for
Carvin' like a board in waves
To another light, to free the slaves

Inside our breasts we stop the rests
Put on your shoes, give up the blues
Never mind, you mustn't grind
There's no behind, just think your blind

A broken stone is no broken heart
Aware of that, keep on and start
The first few yards, the heavy parts
Will no longer last, become the past

The look ahead, the headwind's taste
Astonish you, this magic brew
Don't think too much, jump into that You're dreaming of, be sure you met

It feels like leavin'
Leavin' all your faith

No more grainfields, nomore past
These warm colors, won't run fast
Peacefull mothers, children first
No more science, rules of life
Bad behaviours, will turn grey
Wrong religion, whose the best
Endless summer, fall's a sin too short spring
Too cool winter, too short spring
Like a fiction, men will sing
Dark distortion, feedbacking
Satisfaction, it will stay
Shot right into, it will fail
My addiction, no more rest

No grainfields, ahead...

I'm watching the sand running through your toes
Your hand is just twenty inches far from mine
Imagine the time will stop thus we have no chance
When I look in your eyes it feels as if you give me a wink

Your shoulder touched mine can't believe that odd crime
Then something divided us what a deep hurting cut
One second later our looks met again
I imagine you whispered just come over to me

A teardrop like ice is cribbling my skin
It's not from you, still I wish I could win
Someone played songs, I got a indigo mood
But you walked away in the arms of your duds

It is past midnight, no one's around
Only the waves play their monoton sound
A hand touched my neck, no breath I found
Saw the long hairs in the wind and the eyes to dawn

Can we try this anymore again?
Just try this anymore again?

I really want to see all these people
Who earn a lot of money all day
And drink what they say
But don't want, but don't want to pay

I really want to ask all these people
About the persons they lose so much
They all want to touch
The loveness and kindness of the Lord

But really knowing most of the people
I could say they are blind from the pound
They are blind from the sound of money
That's falling down

Walking through the Ayncouwn Hotel
You can spell all the people
Who were sittin' and where eatin'
And were drinkin' all day
What they
